

Wednesday's Wisdom

a weekly short note from Mike Minear

Do Your Best

Yesterday my son-in-law, Chip Walker posted this on Face Book.

"Figure out what you do well...then improve upon it." In Dee Bowman's book, That's Life! he says.... "It seems to me that life consists mostly of trying to be the best who-you-are you can possibly be, or coming up to the level of your own potential. That involves basically two things: recognizing your natural bent; and putting into practical reality those things you have and whatever you can do. both the opportunity and the responsibility are gifts of God. He is consequently involved in all you do, whether you involve Him in it or not. And so, the greatest respect you can pay Him, is to be who you are and the best who-you-are can possibly be, then thank Him for both possibilities."

Daily Bible Reading

Many of you on the first of the year have begun a daily bible reading program designed to get you through the whole bible in a year. This is very commendable, more of us need to do this. For those of you for what ever reason, feel that you will not have the time this year to make such a commitment I have an alternate plan that will keep you in touch with God's Holy word. Before his passing, Johnny Ramsey gave me the rights to his 6 Cassette series of his Story of the Bible. I have converted these 9 hours of audio tapes to one MP-3 which will play in most new car audio systems, new DVD and portable CD players and of course on your computer. You can even download it into i-Tunes for your i-pod or MP-3 players. I will be more than happy to send you a copy so you can listen to Johnny's synopsis of each book of the Bible.

(If you intend to listen to the disc in your car, please specify, and I will send without a label as a lot of auto players can't accommodate discs with labels.)

Bible Questions

If you have a personal question about what the Bible teaches, I would be happy to study with you, and perhaps provide scriptures for you to consider for your self. We need to all help each other make our way to heaven!
