Saying Thanks Keeps Open A Channel of Love

Robert Harkrider

When we write a thank you note, we not only say that we are thankful, but also that this relationship is important to us, and we want to keep this relationship alive. This is why expressing our appreciation to God is so important. Thanksgiving and praise are among the most effective means of keeping open the channels of communication, the wellsprings of relationship between ourselves and God.

Hopefully, everyone will enjoy Thanksgiving next week and that you will have plenty to eat and will be able to bask in a refreshing and relaxing time. But whatever you do, remember Him from whom all blessings flow. And continue to manifest your thanksgiving to Him throughout the year, both in private times of meditation and prayer, as well as being faithful and regular in public assemblies with other saints.
